

Chariton Courier.

E. B. KELLOGG & J. A. LARSON
Editors and Publishers
KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Friday, Sept. 3, 1915

Entered at the Post Office at Keytesville, Mo.
second-class mail matter.

MEXICO

Texan's are attending to border affair. General Orozco and other Mexicans killed by Texas rangers while trying to escape. Situation practically the same.

EUROPEAN WAR

Austro-German army steadily advancing on St. Petersburg. Ultimatum to Roumania by Austria in question of crossing that country to Dardenelles. Italy doing little and allies in west unable to make material advance. Friction between Lord Kitchener and other war Lords in England is growing.

M. E. Mo. Conference

The Methodist Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South is in session at Chillicothe this week.

Bishop Hendrix is presiding and Rev. J. A. Mumpower who is well known here, preached his semi-centennial sermon Tuesday evening.

Many changes of ministers is looked for.

Eggs wanted I will pay 17 1-2 cents dozen for fresh eggs.

Phone 29

Jim Halley.

The Prairie Hill fair began Thursday.

W. H. Hackenberry of Echo is on the sick list.

Salt, Salt, new car salt.

Phone 29. J. M. Halley.

A fine boy at the home of Ad Embree, Mussel Fork, Thursday morning.

Thos. O. Colley and wife welcomed a fine girl baby Wednesday at their home near Guthridge Mills.

Miss Grace Closson, our charming and efficient chief central operator, will be off on a vacation next week.

Miss Edith Welch of Salisbury will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Welch of Mussel Fork for the week end.

Preston Richards was operated on Saturday for enlarged tonsils and adenoids. It was an aggravated case but the young giant is progressing nicely.

Last chance to sell old iron. I will load out car next week. Bring all you can, will pay 15c hundred iron, old bones 30c rags 50c. Bring all you can. Phone 29 Jim Halley.

Hon. W. W. Rucker returned Saturday from Washington and a visit to his brother in W. Virginia. The Judge is out in the district now visiting friends he was prevented from seeing for so long on account of the long session of congress, and before he must return to Washington, he will visit every part of his district possible. He is looking unusually well and feeling like a winner.

Gents Furnishings

We are opening the Fall Season with largest display of Clothing, Shoes, and Furnishings to be found in the county. As usual, we are featuring the Famous Kuppenheimer and Society Brands of Clothing, Bostonian Shoes, Stetson and Mallory Hats, Varsity Caps, Arrow Brand Shirts and Collars and complete line of Wilson Bros. Furnishings. These brands are all familiar to the "good-dresser" as each represents the very best in its particular line.

Come in, look our lines over, you will find that we are showing the very latest in Clothing, Shoes and Furnishings. We offer you the same furnishings that you would find in the larger cities, and our prices are most reasonable. Convince yourself by looking them over.

Suits $15 to $30

Remember—we have everything for "Dad and the Boys"

C. B. Wallace & Co.

"For Men and Boys"

Brunswick, Mo.

Keep Constantly At 'Em!

That is the secret of successful publicity

The people never know what you have unless you tell them

An automobile firm with a single ad in a single San Francisco paper sold over $1,000,000 worth of machines from the ad.

Does Advertising Pay?

Would auto firms buy double-page ads in the Post at $12,000 a single issue if they didn't pay?

Answer it yourself and then talk ads with us.

Chraneville Chips

Miss Edyth Price will leave Wednesday for Jacksonville for a visit.

Mrs. Louella Pool of Circleville, Kansas is here attending to her mother Mrs. James Emerson who is reported improving.

Bush Etherton and wife and Mrs. Tom Bennett left Saturday for St. Joe and from there they go Glasco, Kansas and other points in Kansas to visit relatives.

Misses Della Coleman and Arbella Stephenson are keeping house for Mrs. Tom Bennett while Mrs. Bennett has gone on a visit to Kansas.

Mrs. Sam Laird visited at Uncle David's last week.

R. S. Auther will sell his household goods Friday September 3 and will shortly leave for California his future home.

Misses Lillian Price and Myrtle and Lorene Harpole and brothers William and Norman, Ernest Price, George Fry and family attended the burial of George DeWeese at the Powell church yard Monday.

Carl Owens, George Culberson, Floyd Gordon have gone on a prospecting trip to Arkansas.

The Pathfinders parade that was billed for this town last Friday came on time 37 automobiles crowded with men, women and children bent on a good time, music was rendered by the Marceline band some short speeches and our good roads highly complimented.

Lou Courtney of Oklahoma was shaking hands with old friends around town Monday. He says Oklahoma is way ahead old Missouri. What a shock.

Children Cry
FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

Mike's Latest

Last Friday a procession of the business men of Marceline in their cars, came through our burg stopped long enough to serve their basket dinner their band to play several pieces and an address by one of their prominent speakers, all advertising their business houses then passed on to Guthridge Mills. Chraneville and stopping at all the villages between there and New Cambria then to their home town accompanied by several cars from our burg, Mike. Therefore we see it pays to advertise to let others know your're in business.

Misses Belle and Edyth Callahan were thrown from a horse one day last week and both were bruised pretty badly. We hope for them to be out again soon.

Joe Burgener and family of Linneus are visiting relatives here at this writing.

Mrs. R. B. Cook of Hamden and Mrs. John Gandy of Rothville spent from Friday till Sunday with their sister Mrs. T. W. Enyeart.

The supper here Thursday night was a little chilly. Cleared about $22.50 wishing to thank each and every lady for their cakes.

Mrs. James Duvall of Marceline is visiting relatives in our town.

Mrs. S. R. Magee and sister Miss Clara Graves spent a few days at the bedside of their nephew Wendell the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Welch of Pee Dee.

Two young ladies of this place had a terrible bad scare Thursday night about one o'clock. Both were able to breathe at this writing.

Some work has been done on roads east of Mike. We hope the good work will continue as the road is nearly impassable.

Ordained Deacons

Rev. Trigg A. M. Thomas of Kansas City, Supt. Home Missions for the synod of Missouri, Presbyterian U. S. A. was here Wednesday night at the Presbyterian church and delivered an address. A big audience heard him. C. C. Carlstead also was ordained as deacon of the church, Tuesday night Rev. Thomas was at Indian Grove where two elders, William Callahan and Amos Patterson, and one deacon, Amos Kellison, were ordained. Monday night he preached at Brunswick and Thursday night at Beth-Pel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward of Winslow, Arizona, and son Will, arrived here Monday to visit for a while at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. White. They will visit at St. Louis and other points before returning to their home in southwest.

Jim Ben Willett was over from Marceline this week to receive and put into his automobile some parts that were broken while he and his father were enroute home a few weeks ago. The car went to the bad and was left at Guthridge's mill.

Some nocturnal miscreants took Mrs. Geo. M. Dewey's Jackson car from its garage Wednesday night with the intent to make off with it or have a joy ride. The car was out of kilter somewhat and they, he or it, got only as far as the street where they left it.

Goes For Operation

Dr. C. E. DeMont left here Tuesday for Kansas City where he will be gone for several weeks and will submit to an operation. Doc has been in pretty bad physically of late and his friends will hope to see him come back fine and fit as a fiddle.

Washington Church District

Washington school started Monday with an enrollment of twenty-two pupils.

Miss Mollie Davidson who has been attending chautauqua at Salisbury came home Monday.

Mrs. Harvey Green and two sons who have been visiting relatives in this neighborhood left for their home in St. Louis Tuesday.

Several from this community attended the funeral and burial of Lee Waterfield at Clifton Hill Sunday.

The residence of Mrs. Lena Harker caught fire Saturday and only a few things were saved. A small insurance was carried.

Ben Hoyle of Prairie Hill died at his home Saturday night. The funeral was preached at Prairie Hill and the remains were laid to rest in the Salisbury cemetery.

Wallace Richardson of Keytesville is visiting his uncle J. W. Hardgrove and family this week.

Several from here attended the quarterly meeting at Prairie Hill Saturday.

Prairie Valley school house is almost completed and school will be ready to start Monday.

Uncle Charlie King and daughter Mrs. Annie Ehrhardt and granddaughter Miss Nellie King are visiting Mrs. A. C. Phillips north of Keytesville at present.

With this writing we shall close our correspondence for this valuable paper we were proud to be numbered among its contributors but other duties make it necessary for us to lay down our pen and say good bye.

T. J. Kitchen and A. B. Baugh purchased thirty-five head of sheep north of Prairie Hill Saturday. Felix Langer has recently bought one hundred and twenty five.

Brunswick High School Opens Sep't. 6th

Modern building and equipment. All members of faculty having normal school and university training for their respective departments. A first class school fully accredited to the University of Missouri with 25 approved units.

Board and Tuition Reasonable

ADVANTAGES:

Teacher Training Course, Manual Training, Home Economics, English, Latin, German, History, Mathematics, Science, Music, Athletics.

For further information, write, phone or see

E. A. Clawson

Superintendent